

Master Gardeners

Master Gardeners are trained educators who volunteer with Virginia Cooperative Extension (VCE) to assist the local agent with plant clinics, lawn and landscape programs for homeowners, conduct plant clinics, give lectures and present SOL-based curriculum in local schools

Our Mission:

To provide an aesthetically pleasing, well-designed, educational garden space through which VCE Master Gardener Volunteers and staff can demonstrate and provide classes on a wide array of VCE recommended horticultural and water quality practices for the benefit and education of our Prince William community.

About the Teaching Garden

The Teaching Garden is a place to see low maintenance gardening techniques that homeowners can implement in their own gardens and plant material that grows well locally. Thanks to the St. Benedict Monastery for providing us this outdoor educational site.

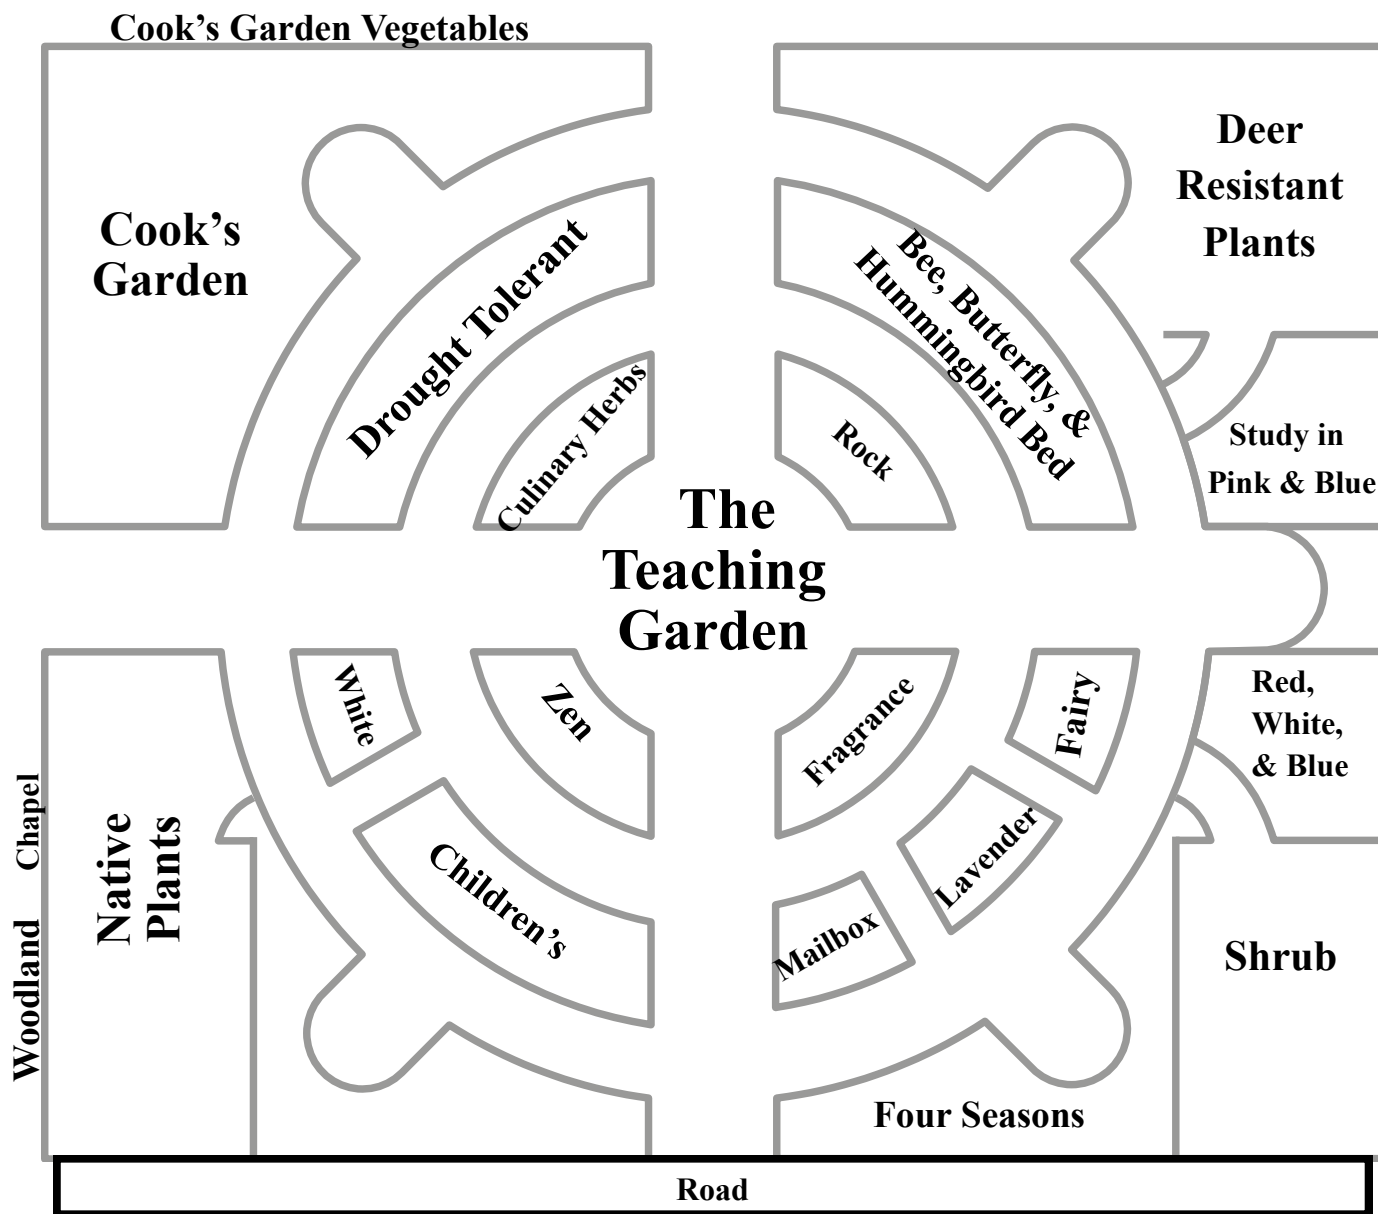

The Teaching Garden is a project of the VCE-Prince William Master Gardener Volunteers and is funded solely by the Master Gardeners of Prince William.
